About Us

Commercial flooring and project management experts.

Hanmar

HANMAR delivers a top-tier floor installation and project management service, specialising in commercial, healthcare, education government, hospitality, recreation, airport and retail real estate in Australia. With over 4 decades in the commercial flooring and construction industry, HANMAR has established long-term relationships with Australia's top-tier companies, suppliers, asset managers and building contractors.

With a strong commitment to the product life cycle and delivering efficient outcomes, HANMAR has earned an enviable reputation as a trusted, environmentally minded and innovative business. A long list of satisfied clients is testament to the experience, access to global supplies, technical knowledge and attention to detail.

The Andrews Group

HANMAR has been an integral part of The Andrews Group for over 40 years.

The Andrews Group is an architectural product, installation and product life-cycle management company established over 40 years ago. As a genuine family company, the founder Howard Andrews maintains a guiding hand on the business while the next generation of the family manage operations in Australia and Southeast Asia. A youthful, entrepreneurial and innovative spirit infuses the company, backed by enduring values of respect, trust and experience.

With a focus on design and sustainability, The Andrews Group work in partnership with Australia's leading architects and designers to create imaginative and inspiring spaces with BOLON flooring and BAUX acoustic panels. With a focus on efficiency and sustainability, delivery extends to flooring installation and project management through the HANMAR business and maintenance and product life-cycle services through FLOORLIFE.

Together, The Andrews Group offers comprehensive product and service expertise, including product supply, installation and life-cycle management to the construction and interior design industries in Australia and Southeast Asia.

Recognised For Excellence

Proud of our awards and accolades over our 40-year history.

Our delivery of high-quality projects that often exceeds client expectations has earned Hanmar a range of awards, recognition and certificates from industry bodies and clients.

Winner - 2016 Flooring Association of Victoria (FAV) Awards - Office Fit-Out

Hanmar was awarded the best Office Fitout at the 2016 FAV Awards for their installation of Bolon at CGU Insurance in Melbourne. Using 1,450 m2 of custom angular shaped tiles, the flooring was installed on Regupol underlay to access flooring.

To minimise waste generated from cutting BOLON in the directional weave of the material according to design, a complex method to laser cut the material was used. Despite tight deadlines and a challenging installation, the installation team worked tirelessly for three weeks to achieve a successful outcome for the client. The job was completed flawlessly and within budget.

Nomination - 2017 Flooring Association of Victoria (FAV) Awards - Office Fit-Out

Following the move of their corporate headquarters from Sydney to Melbourne, department store retailer David Jones embarked on a large redesign of their new headquarters at Botanica 3, 572 Swan St, Richmond.

Using a combination of Shaw Carpet Tiles, Comcork, Tretford, Armstrong and Designer Rugs, the team of professionals installed flooring over the expansive 7,400m2 space.

Despite challenging programming, the 3-month project was completed to perfection and under budget.
